Dear Peter,

NAMAS Accreditation

Thank you for sending Stewart Massey a copy of the documentation prepared to achieve NAMAS accreditation. As Ian Brown probably told you, we are considering accreditation in Canada through the Canadian Standards Association. Our understanding is that the process is in many respects similar to that of NAMAS. Consequently your documents will likely provide very useful background information.

Having said that, and judging by detail of information, I am rather concerned over the amount of effort which will be required to achieve accreditation.

With best regards,
Yours sincerely,

G. DuPlessis
