Dear Richard:

Further to our telephone conversation of today's date, I now take this opportunity of attaching a copy of a note from Mr. Purdy Crawford to Mr. Paré, which was prepared last week in response to your note to Mr. P. Sheehy which you wrote last June. I will let the memo speak for itself.

As I explained to you on the telephone, I understand this item is one of three on the agenda for discussion by Mr. Paré when he is in London in September. He has asked me to attempt to clarify the legal issues before his visit in September.

In the circumstances, I would therefore be grateful to you for your comments opposite Mr. Crawford's memo.

Yours very truly,

Roger S. Ackman
