

SJG:NW

22nd July 1974

file no. 1

TO: P.MACADAM, ESQ. 2
P.L.SHORT, ESQ. 3

Report RD.1126-R describes work which is part of our programme involving smoking behaviour, smoking motivation and the effects of smoking. We have used the Gibson Spiral Maze as a measure of the psychomotor performance of 348 subjects, and a comparison of the results for the smoking and non-smoking groups shows that smokers have a lower psychomotor efficiency. This is just part of the picture we require for the smoking behaviour study at Southampton.

Enc:

S.J.GREEN

110079621