Dear Martin:

Ruth and I followed your tour plan except that we cut out the westernmost swing in order to do less driving and more walking. So from Lulworth Cove we spent a night at a pub at Peter Tavey near Tavistock, then went directly to Lynton for two nights, and then on to Bath. We thoroughly enjoyed every minute in every place, but our vote for the best of all is the area around Lynton, and we are most grateful to you for pointing us in that direction. We knew before we started we had not given ourselves enough time but perhaps it's all for the best, because the taste we had makes it certain we'll be back for more.

Please don't fail to give us a call whenever you're in Montreal. We'll enjoy seeing you.

With kind regards.

Yours sincerely,

R. M. Gibb
