

Please Note . . .

While providing treatment in this emergency department, authorized staff may access your PharmaNet profile to get a list of your current medications. This access is permitted by legislation. For further information, please review a copy of the ED Access to PharmaNet information sheet available in the emergency department.